Message from:

Interim President Dr. Marisela Rodriguez Tijerina

Dear Faculty,

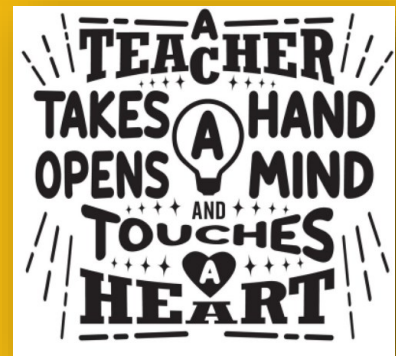

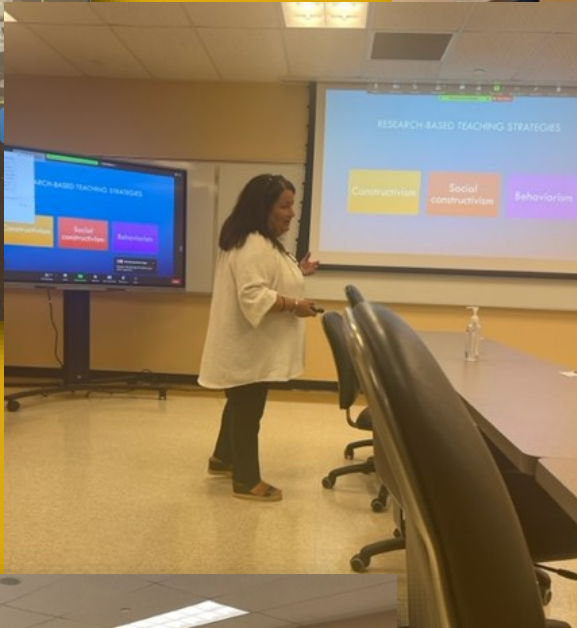

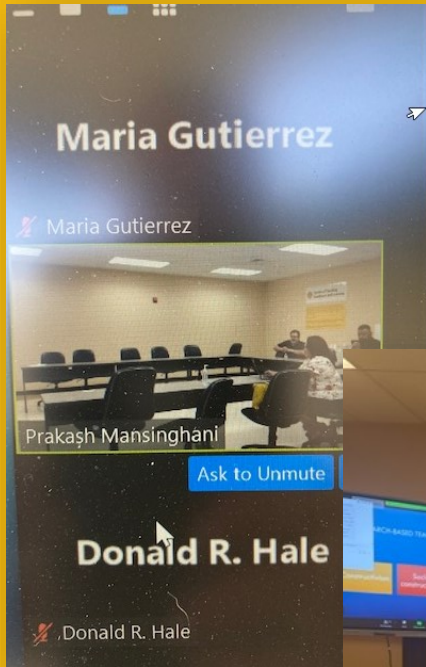

LC continues to excel and preserve our mission that revolves around STUDENT SUCCESS. One of the efforts made to fulfill our mission was by creating the Center of Teaching Excellence and Learning (CTEL). It is important that we support faculty and create initiatives that will enhance teaching and learning. My vision as Provost is to provide faculty with professional development opportunities that bring us together in open dialogue to better serve our students and community. CTEL is designed to be faculty led in which we all can learn from each other in regards to teaching strategies that draw student engagement, access to pedagogical support and most importantly build best practices for our learners at LC. I want to thank our CTEL faculty Kash Mansinghani, Michelle Perez, Linda Ramirez, Dr. Orlando Patricio, Lourdes Gutierrez, Dr. Veronica Martinez and Dean of Academic Innovation and Technology, Dr. Elizabeth C. Rodriguez for assisting in creating and implementing CTEL's mission and initiatives. The implementation could not have occurred without the support of the entire faculty body. Thank you for taking the time in supporting the recent workshops and taking the appropriate duties as a faculty member to stay current with the fields of teaching and learning. As we continue to pursue the mission of CTEL, we must always remember the best practices that we are creating and developing will impact student engagement, retention, enrollment, innovation, and academic excellence. I certainly cannot wait for next year and we will continue to collaborate because teaching and learning is the core of what we do at this institution!!!

A big THANK YOU to our Interim President Dr. Marisela Rodriguez Tijerina, Interim Provost/VP of Academic Affairs Dr. David Arreazola, to all Deans, Department Chairs and most especially our faculty for supporting the mission of the Center of Teaching Excellence and Learning. This was a collaborative effort and we could not have done it without your support!! CTEL Faculty
