

Required Answers to Questions

- Does the institution employ outside investment advisors or managers and, if so, who are they (provide individual or firm name and address)? Do the outside investment advisors or managers have the authority to make investment decisions without obtaining prior approval?

No. The college handles its own investments in accordance to the current investment policy.

- Does the institution use soft dollar, directed brokerage or directed commission, commission recapture, or similar arrangements (these arrangements typically involve using brokerage commissions as a means of paying for other related investment services through credits of a portion of brokerage commissions paid rather than through direct payments, or using selected brokers who will rebate a portion of commissions they receive on trades for the investor)? If the answer to this question is yes, the institution must summarize briefly the guidelines that govern the use of such arrangements.

No. The College does not use soft dollar, directed brokerage or directed commission, commission recapture, or similar arrangements as a means of paying for other related investment services.

- Is the institution associated with an independent endowment or foundation? (If the answer to this question is yes, the institution must provide contact information [name and address] for the individual [s] who manage the independent endowment or foundation. The institution must also provide, if available, the market value of the endowment's or foundation's investments.

Yes. The LCC Education Foundation was established during fiscal year 2003

Contact Information:

Mrs. Millicent B. Slaughter
P.O. Box 661
Laredo, Texas 78040
Phone (956) 744-3905

Market Value of Investments:

As of August 31, 2019: $434,619

As of August 31, 2020: $404,424