

Graduation Checklist

- Have you meet with your academic advisor?
- Have you been following your program curriculum plan?
- Will you earn the correct amount of credits to complete the program requirements?
- Is your GPA 2.0 or higher? (Some programs may require higher minimum GPA's)
- Have you completed the Texas Success Initiative (TSI), if applicable?
- If you're a transfer student did you complete 25% of coursework at Laredo College.
- If you're following a Workforce program are you substituting a non-equivalent course? If so, has the substitution request been initiated?
- Did apply for graduation with the Office of the Registrar?

Graduation Requirements

Bachelors of Applied Science in Organizational Leadership (BASORGL)

To be awarded the Bachelors of Applied Science in Organizational Leadership, students must satisfy the following requirements:

- Complete the 120 total credit hours of the program requirements in the following areas: Core Curriculum Courses (42 semester credit hours), Professional Development Courses (48 semester credit hours), and Upper Level ORGL courses (30 semester credit hours).
- Maintain a program GPA of 2.5 or better while in the program.
- Maintain a grade of "B" or above in all upper level ORGL courses (30 SCH).

Bachelors of Science in Nursing (BSN)

To be awarded the Bachelors of Science in Nursing, students must satisfy the following requirements:

- Complete the 120 total credit hours of the program requirements in the following areas: Core Curriculum Courses (42 semester credit hours), Prerequisites (9 semester credit hours), RN Courses (36 semester credit hours) and Upper Level BSN Course (33 semester credit hours).
- Maintain a program GPA of 2.5 or better while in the program.
- Complete all core/pre-requisite nursing courses in the required sequence as outlined in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing Program's degree plan with a grade of "B" or better.

Associate of Arts (AA)

To be awarded the Associate of Arts, students must satisfy the following requirements:

- Complete the appropriate course of study for an Associate of Arts program as listed in the College Catalog.
- Complete all TSI requirements.
- Complete 25% of coursework at Laredo College (Credit received through other means other than actual course instruction will no be counted in percentage).
- Maintain a minimum program GPA of 2.00.

Associate of Science (AS)

To be awarded the Associate of Science, students must satisfy the following requirements:

- Complete the appropriate course of study for an Associate of Arts program as listed in the College Catalog.
- Complete all TSI requirements.
- Complete 25% of coursework at Laredo College (Credit received through other means other than actual course instruction will not be counted in percentage).
- Maintain a minimum program GPA of 2.00

Associate in Applied Science (AAS)

To be awarded the Associate in Applied Science, students must satisfy the following requirements:

- Complete the appropriate course of study for an Associate in Applied Science program as listed in the College Catalog.
- Complete all TSI requirements.
- Complete 25% of coursework at Laredo College (Credit received through other means other than actual course instruction will not be counted in percentage).
- Maintain a minimum program GPA of 2.00.

Certificates (CERT)

To be awarded the Certificate, students must satisfy the following requirements:

- Complete the appropriate course of study for a Certificate program as listed in the College Catalog.
- Complete the requirements of the Texas Success Initiative (TSI), if applicable.
- Complete 25% of coursework at Laredo College (Credit received through other means other than actual course instruction will not be counted in percentage).
- Maintain a minimum program GPA of 2.00.