Dropping a course (s)— Initial next to each statement below to indicate your understanding of any possible implications that may result from dropping a course (s).

- Since fall 2007, any student enrolled for the first time at any Texas public college or university is limited to six course withdrawals (drops) during his/her academic career. This rule applies to any course earning a grade of "W" at Laredo College and "W"s earned at any other Texas public college or university. After a student drops six courses in his/her academic career, he/she will not be permitted to drop any more courses and will receive the grade earned for the course.
- Students who enroll in certain courses taken for a third time or more OR who enroll in developmental courses and have already taken 18 or more semester hours of developmental coursework will be charged a differential tuition fee of $60 per credit hour.
- Dropping below full time status may adversely affect financial aid, eligibility as a dependent for insurance coverage, and veteran's benefits.
- International students must receive prior approval from the international student representative before dropping below full time. Failure to receive approval may jeopardize student VISA status.
- Before dropping a course, students are encouraged to meet with financial aid staff.
- Before dropping a course, students must consult with their advisor. Students that do not have an advisor must meet with their instructor.
- Any changes made to a student's schedule after the first class day will have an additional $10 fee per transaction (event).
- Any student completely withdrawing from all courses will be charged a matriculation fee of $15.
- I certify that I am only withdrawing from the listed course(s) in this form and I Do Not intent to drop from any other course(s). I understand that withdrawing from any other course may affect my eligibility to Title IV funds for this and/or next semester.

Students who drop will pay the following percentages of their tuition:

0% Prior to the first class day of semester or session				Classes with beginning and end dates that vary from the regular semester/session may have a different refund schedule. For more information, visit the Office of the Registrar and Admissions, Lerma Peña Bldg. Room 116 or Billy Hall Rm. A113 .
