Subject: Title IX Fall 2025 Report
Date: February 4, 2026

Title IX Title IX \(laredo.edu\)

To comply with legislative requirements for institutions receiving federal funds, Laredo College has established specific policies and procedures to address compliance with Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C., Section 1681 Et. Seq. (Title IX)) which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs or activities. Furthermore, sexual assault, sexual violence, relationship violence (dating and domestic violence), stalking and sexual harassment, are a form of sex discrimination which is prohibited by Title IX. Any individual who has a complaint regarding Title IX prohibited behaviors may submit a report through the following link Report Alleged Sexual Misconduct / Title IX which can also be found on the Laredo College Report It Website, you can also contact the Title IX Coordinator to address this complaint or use the anonymous reporting form Palomino ALERT!

Laredo College now uses Palomino ALERT! an online reporting platform that allows individuals to share concerns anonymously and securely. You may submit a report without identifying yourself, naming the individuals involved, or requesting a specific action. However, please be aware that limited information may restrict the College's ability to investigate or respond appropriately.

The law also requires for all entering freshmen and returning students to take part in an on-line Title IX training.
