Subject: Title IX Spring 2024 Report
Date: June 10, 2024

Title IX Title IX \(laredo.edu\)

To comply with legislative requirements for institutions receiving federal funds, Laredo College has established specific policies and procedures to address compliance with Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C., Section 1681 Et. Seq. (Title IX)) which prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in education programs or activities. Furthermore, sexual assault, sexual violence, relationship violence (dating and domestic violence), stalking and sexual harassment, are a form of sex discrimination which is prohibited by Title IX. Any individual who has a complaint regarding Title IX prohibited behaviors needs to contact the Title IX Coordinator to address this complaint or use the anonymous electronic platform STOP!T to report it.

Download STOP!T for free from iTunes or Google Play. Access code through PASPORT to activate a report.

The law also requires for all entering freshmen and returning students to take part in an on-line Title IX training.
